Council meetings are held in public; you are welcome to attend and participate. Occasionally the matters to be discussed could disclose sensitive information (relating to staffing or other contractual matters) so the public and press will be required to leave. These matters will be discussed in a Confidential section as the last items on the Agenda following the passing of a resolution to exclude the press and public.

There is no right to speak during the meeting. However, the Chairman can suspend the Meeting and invite you to address the meeting in relation to any business on the Agenda, e.g., a planning matter.

The following are relevant to the Public and Press:

- May not report/ comment to third parties orally during the meeting (but can after the meeting)
- May film, photograph or make an audio recording of the meeting
- May enable absent persons to see or hear the meeting (live or later)
- May produce a written report or comment during or after the meeting
