Council meetings are held in public; residents are welcome to observe and, on invitation, participate. Occasionally the matters to be discussed could disclose sensitive information (relating to staffing or other contractual matters) so the public and press will be required to leave. These matters will be discussed in a confidential section as the last item(s) on the Agenda following the passing of a resolution to exclude the press and public.

There is no right to speak during the meeting. However, the Chairman can suspend the Meeting and invite you to address the meeting in relation to any business on the Agenda, e.g., a planning matter. The public

- Cannot report/ comment to third parties orally during the meeting (but can after the meeting)
- Can film, photograph or make an audio recording of the meeting
- Can enable absent persons to see or hear the meeting (live or later)
- Can produce a written report or comment during or after the meeting
